

Debra Bowen

May 25, 1953 - October 31, 2020

Debra Ruth Edwards Bowen resident of Loganville, GA passed away at age 67 on Saturday, October 31, 2020 at Emory Decatur hospital. Debra was born in Dothan, Alabama and grew up in Waynesville, NC where she graduated from Tuscola High School in 1971. She joined Bellsouth (now AT&T) in Charlotte, NC. She later transferred to Atlanta, GA where she retired from Bellsouth with over 30 years of service in 2005. After retirement she moved to Supply, NC where she joined The Bridge Church in 2015.

Debra is survived by her daughter Amanda Bowen and three grandchildren Hannah, Gavin and Kendal, stepchildren Sarah and Jason and sisters Donna Edwards Peterson and Cathy Edwards Hulsey. Debra's predeceased by Thomas R. Bowen, her parents William Eugene Edwards and Ruth Ferguson Edwards and sister, Belinda Diana Edwards.

Debra enjoyed being with her family, sitting by the pool, working puzzles, cooking, watching Braves baseball and her beloved Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to an animal adoption, shelter or rescue in her name.

A "Celebration of Life" in Debra's memory will be held at a later date.

“ Debra was a out going person, we even meet many times at Wild Bill doing line dancing, she love to dance the nite away. My daughter Tracey and her daughter Amanda and Sara would all hang out together and party together but Debra would always make sure they were ok and staying out of trouble together. Debra was a greT Mom to all of the kids that came around her house. Debra will dearly be missed now God has got Anither Heavenly Mom until we all meet again you are at peace now no more sickness
