“ I have known Dennis almost all of mylife i went to school with him for 11 years Dennis was such a wonderful and very caring and giving person. Dennis always had away of making people laugh that he did.And his love for animals was just unreal but then again to know Dennis Callahan was to either love him. If u were his friend you were always his friend that u were. I hope that his wife Jennifer and his daughter Keri can find some kind of peace from all they are going thru may God bless Dennis's family. R.I.P. my dear friend

“ Although we only had a few short years together, I've loved you since I was 19 years old. You brought me more happiness and love than I've ever known. God sent you to be mine when i needed you the most, and I thank him for that every single day. I loved being your mate, your wife, and your last love. I will cherish every day I had with you, all the love and happy memories, and tough times we shared together for all the days of my life. I lived every day to just love you and cherish you, and take care of you. All I ever wanted was to try and make sure that your every want, every need, and every wish you had was fulfilled. I tried to take care of you and take away any pain or suffering you might have to the best of my ability and I hope you know that. I can't stand the thought of not having you here with me, but you will always be in my heart. I'm glad you have no more pain, illness, and hard days. I know you love Jesus, and I know you love being with him in heaven. I smile thinking and knowing of all you are seeing and enjoying in heaven now. I can't wait to be there with you! I hope you know how much I love you, and cherish you. My heart is full of love but also of sadness. You were my reward from Jesus right here on earth. I'll always still sing to you every day, always tell you how much I love you. Thank you for loving me and making me your wife, and thank you being so good to me. You are and will always be my greatest love.

“ I never had the opportunity to meet Dennis, but came to "know" him through the love and devotion of his wife Jenny.
He made her happy, he made her radiant, he made her life a complete joy.
It is heartbreaking when a love is lost and I can only imagine the hole left in Jenny's heart over his loss.
May God bring Jenny peace and ease her pain and may she find comfort in knowing how very much she was and is loved.
Rest in peace Dennis.
Always,

“ Hey was the best daddy a girl could ask for. He was sweet, funny, loving, and caring. But he would get ua if you messed with his girls. Lol. I sure will miss listening to some Skynyrd with him. I love you daddy. Fly high with the angels. Now you are home with all our family.
We will meet again in heaven. Love your Gal, Keri Beavers
