“ Dear Mrs Moraes;please excuse me for writing in this context. In Arusha 1968 I was your pupil and I have never forgotten you; I've tried for a long time to find you. Thank you so much for your warmth and the way you taught us. Do you remember how you took me to your church? I'll always remember those days with joy. Thank you for being you. I hope for an answer. Otherwise if not possible, thanks for the joy you've given me so freely.

“ My sincerest condolences to you Mrs. Iona and the entire family on Mr. Dervy's passing. I was glad that I was able to meet him while Danny and I were in Atlanta. From all that Danny has said about his dad and my brief visit with him I can tell he was a great human being and man of God.
Let your heart not be troubled, for all who believe in him will meet at the banquet table where we will all share eternal life.
God's Blessings be with you.
