“ Oh, how I loved talking to Desma! Memories soar of the times Mother, Daddy, Wayne, and I would visit them. My first memories were when they lived in Atlanta then later moved to Snellville. She and James, along with Aunt Alma & Uncle Johnny, and Ruth & Dewey will always hold a very special place in my heart.

She was always so personable--uplifting and funny! What a great sense of humor she had! What a grand reunion going on in Heaven!

You will truly be missed my dear cousin and friend!

“ Desma was lots of fun! My parents and I visited them when I was a kid. At that time they lived in Atlanta. She was a good cook. And always wanted you to eat with her. Being cousins. We spent lots of time. I remember on a occasion the senior group from Ebenezer church had a outing to the Apple barn in north GA. I got to sit by her. She told me if I'm going to sit beside her, I better be good! And she laughed! I loved her!

Needless to say she is not in any more pain.
