“ I was a child when I met Mr. Melton. He was a quite, hard-working man. I did not see him for many years until on a visit to my mom in the nursing home there was Mr. Melton. He sat with such grace and dignity. Even though he had gotten older; he still had his pride. During one of our visits my daughter visited with Mr. Melton, and she still recalls what a jpleasant afternoon it was to sit and talk to Mr. Melton.

I know Mr. Melton is looking down from heaven smiling because he at peace.##imported-begin##Kathy Warbington Anderson##imported-end##

“ I knew Dewey as I was a volunteer for Meals On Wheels, and visited with him every other Monday, for several years. I was sad he had to be placed in a home, but it was necessary I suppose. He shared with me many stories about his life and family in Dacula. I always enjoyed our brief time together. My prayers are with you, and Dewey is someone I will never forget. God bless you.##imported-begin##Shirley Houston##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear of Dewey's passing. We have wonderful memories of him when we went to pick figs. We would take out great-grandsons and they would love to carry on conversations with Mr. and Mrs. Melton. God be with all of you.##imported-begin##Clyde & Peggy Calvit##imported-end##
