

Dexter Andres Levy

August 27, 1993 - November 16, 2025

DEXTER - On August 27, 1993, in Buford, GA the world welcomed Dexter Andrés Levy, a young man whose humility, warmth, and radiant spirit touched everyone he met. From childhood, Dexter carried a gentle kindness that drew people in and made them feel valued, safe, and truly seen. Dexter lived with intention and heart. He had a rare gift for making others feel important - listening without judgment, encouraging without hesitation, and loving without limits. His spirit was sincere, steady, and deeply loyal. Family was the center of Dexter's life. He showed his love through protection, presence, and small, thoughtful acts that spoke louder than words. Whether cooking, laughing, or simply being there, Dexter made sure his family felt cherished. His passion for cooking was another expression of his love. As a chef, he didn't just prepare meals - he created moments. Every dish reflected his creativity, patience, and desire to bring comfort and joy to those around him. Dexter also found peace in music, strength in his faith, and purpose in lifting others. His humor lightened heavy hearts, and his presence brought reassurance. He had a remarkable instinct for recognizing when someone needed support and offered it freely. On November 16, 2025, at the age of 32, Dexter entered eternal rest. Though his time here was far too short, his impact reaches beyond his years. His legacy lives on in the love he gave, the lives he uplifted, and the family he treasured. Dexter's life was a gift, his heart, his legacy, and his memory will forever shine in the lives of those who loved him. His legacy lives on in the love he gave, the lives he uplifted, and the family he treasured.

Dexter leaves behind his loving mother, Maritza Levy; his devoted brother, Devin Antonyio Levy; his cherished nephew, Ezra Levy; his beloved grandmother, Zaphine Gonzalez; and his aunts and uncles: Miriam Edouard, Samuel Edouard, Rafael Levy, Donna M Duncan and Ana Mercedes Levy. He is also survived by his dear cousins: Carlton M Jackson, Samantha N. Edouard-Stein, Samuel N. Edouard, Mickel L. Edouard, Malik L. Edouard, Ayana Ngwabana, and Aurelie Ngwabana and Makeba Prince. He is remembered with deep affection by extended family, lifelong friends, and all who were blessed to share in his journey. Dexter's life was a gift, his heart, his legacy, and his memory will forever shine in the lives of those who loved him.
