“ Royce, Jeff and Allison I am so sorry that you are going through this difficult time especially at this time of the year. Just keep the memories of Dianne and how special she really was and just know you will see her again soon. No more pain no more suffering here on earth. She is now singing in that heavenly choir with her beautiful voice.

I know you will have some difficult days ahead but remember you do not walk alone.

Thanks to our father in Heaven who had each of us on his heart when he gave his only son to die for all of us that would believe in him. Thank you Lord for The Old Rugged Cross That Made A Difference ,for my life and Charles marriage. I believe we will be with our love ones in the near future, Love to the Bagley family, Judy

“ *I will always remember how happy Dianne was whenever we talked about her family or her trips to Biloxi with Royce. She let everyone know how much she loved her husband and two children, Allison and Jeffrey. I had the pleasure of working with Dianne as a bailiff. She always had a positive attitude and treated everyone with respect. I will miss her friendly smile and laughter. I pray her family finds comfort knowing she loved them very much!
