“ She was my sister. She is my sister. Although while she was alive, I didn't acknowledge that she was the most brightest and happy person in my life. Always laughing and never knowing when to stop. I used to always hear her laughing to herself in the next room and never thought anything of it until I realized she was gone and never coming back. Im so sorry Dijonae for not realizing how much of a positive impact you had on my life. You deserved more. You deserved to be cherished completely everyday of your entire life. I promise that I will dedicate my life to seeing you again. I love you. May we meet again.:)

YO

This is Yomari Jackson one of dijonae's sisters. dijonae was a nice kind loving person even though she was different than other people she was still an amazing person. before I get my day started I always take time out just to talk to her and tell her that I love her. i just want to say that you need to always be strong, and it's ok that you can't always keep your head held high, but it's important to know that you can't keep holding onto the past, not saying to just forget about what happened but I'm saying that you have to keep moving forward. all of the obstacles that come your way just knock them down and keep moving forward. if you spend your life thinking about the past you won't move forward. Thank you, IN MEMORY OD DIJONAE COLEMAN the best sister ever! RIP 😊

“ So sorry for your loss. Praying for you and your family during this difficult time. I have so many memories with Dijonae. I can hear her calling me and saying I'm her best friend and that she loves me. My best memory is when I moved after I got married and came to visit her and she was so surprised she cried. She will greatly be missed and has touched many lives. Cherish the memories and fun times. Rest in peace.

“ My son and I met Dijonae at Peachtree Ridge High school. She was such a unique and loving person. I will always have a special place in my heart for Dijonae. She always wanted to know where i was, if she did not see me that day. She would ask the other staff members if anyone saw Ms. Jane. I am so soory for your loss. Blessings!

“ To Dijonae's Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Dijonae will truly be missed. Whenever she saw anybody walking in the hallways at Monarch, she would say where is Ms. Tawanna all day long and when she finally saw me she would say "come here Ms. Tawanna, I love you, you my best friend." Those words I will always remember. You all are in my thoughts and prayers. Rest in peace Dijonae! May God continue to bless you!
