“ My deepest sympathies to Dixie's family. Many years ago [in the early seventies] I worked with Dixie at Walton Clothes. She was always a delight and I thought so much of her then. Not so very long ago I saw her and we remembered each other and had a nice talk. My heart goes out to all her loved her. God bless.##imported-begin##Debra Bryant##imported-end##

“ Gene and family, It was in Athens, Greece in the sixties that we became friends. At that time and place we were all like family to each other because we were so far away from our own families. I have many fond memories of our time there--the party we had for Jim's mother when she came over and the Besco's ekosi (20 yr.) party are two of them. Dixie was a beautiful person and will be greatly missed by her family and friends. She was very talented, and sent me a booklet of her poems which I cherish.

Gene, my deepest condolences to you for your loss, but we have God's promise that we'll be together again. May God sustain you in your grief and grant you His peace.

“ I've known Dixie and her family since we lived in Athens in the 60's -
- I still have the little purses and hats Dixie crocheted for my Barbie and gave me for my 10th birthday. I was so delighted to discover dimes and nickels in each of the purses--it was a fortune for me then and now I've discovered, a fortune in memories as it's one of the birthdays I always remember. My family has been blessed to have known this wise woman! Gene & family, you are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Lynn Phillips##imported-“ Grandma has been such a large part of my life that it's just hard to think that she won't be here with us anymore. She was an amazing gentle soul, intelligent, compassionate, and full of so much love for her family and friends. I am grateful for everything that she taught me and shared with me and I just pray that I am able to live up to her example. My heart is breaking but I know she is at peace now.##imported-begin##Holly Blomberg ##imported-end##
