“ She was a great woman. I will miss her terribly. The only grandparent I was close to. The only one I had left. She will sing to me forever now. She had a beautiful singing voice. My heart is breaking but I know she is in a better place and now has found peace. I loved her. I'll always love her. She would make apologies for my mother..always proud of the person I had become through my hardships. Always had beautiful things to say...She is already missed more than words can say..I love you Grandma.##imported-begin##Teresa (Teri) Amosson Tempel##imported-end##
