“ my name is Patty Ritacco. I was Dokeys best friend in highschool. I have trying to locate her for long time. I finally did, too late. We went to dances together while she waited for you while you were in the army. We were in the band together; we went to Kennywood together. I see she turned catholic, like her brother. I was also in the service. I heard her voice on the phone about one yr ago. she said she would call back. we failed to reach ea other. Believe me I am so sorry.

“ George ... Please except my condolences for your loss. I always remember the story that you told about you and Dolores and Atlantic City where she needed some more film and you went to a neighborhood store to save the price of the expensive film at the hotel ... And stopped by to try your luck one more time before leaving ... which only added to the cost of the film.
Blessings to you and your family,
Bruce Fuhrman
