

Dolores Rodriguez

January 15, 1914 - July 4, 2011

RODRIGUEZ, DOLORES - Dolores Rodriguez, was born in Aibonito Puerto Rico on January 15, 1914, the 2nd of 13 children, born to Jose A. Rodriguez and Regina Cartagena De Rodriguez. She had only one child, Edith Sanchez (de) Adames, 6 grandchildren, Magda, the late Lizette, Susan, Monique, Robert and Ashli. She is also survived by 7 great grandchildren, Jeffrey Todd, Chari, Jackie, Jeremy, Lauren, Alonso & Haley Marie, her beloved son-in-law, Fidel A. Adames, grand-sons-in-law, Joe, Keith, Scot & Jeff. Dolores was born on a farm to a wealthy, for the times, farmer & rancher. Educated to the 5th grade, but at that time children were taught to a great extent in the advanced school circle. She moved to New York in 1936 and accomplished much in her life. Dolores worked as a garment worker in New York and became a very outspoken advocate on worker's right. She represented her coworkers in the Garment Workers Union by becoming a delegate. She was active in the Democrat Club of New York in the 1950 & 60's and had the honor of meeting both John F. Kennedy and Robert Kennedy. On a limited income, Dolores, managed to travel to 27 countries of this planet, with churches and other organizations. She was a good example, as to what a Christian should and can do to bring her family members, as well as complete strangers to the true knowledge of salvation through Jesus Christ. Dolores was of the Methodist faith, very active in church and her community in many capacities. She passed away on Monday, July 4, 2011 after her fight with Alzheimer, for over 19 years. Dolores was cared for in Regency Health in St. Augustine, Florida and for the last 9 years in Atlanta's North East Health and Rehab in Chamblee, Georgia. She was given the most attentive and loving care in both facilities by their entire staff. As her life's journey ends here on Earth, she leaves her body here. Her journey to eternity will be free of the chains that bound her here and her spirit will soar to heaven to finally meet Jesus face to face. She will run with the angels and when she stands before our God, Jesus will stand by her and say to his father "Here stands Dolores, she is blameless, I died for her sins". Thank you Mom! “ You know my heart and prayers are with you at this difficult time. The obituary is a beautiful tribute and makes me wish even more I had been able to have met her when she was healthier, but I know her goodness and spirit through you, Edith (Mami), and this wonderful family I have been blessed to be a part of. Love you.##imported-begin##Scot Jones##imported-end##
