I did whatever he said!!! Check out the pic of us with double trophies below! Wonderful memories. Hate I can't be there. Prayers for you all!*

“ When Donald and I were in the fourth grade in Mrs Kozarts class and Uncle Claude and Mamie went to California for a visit Donald was supposed to stay with us at our home and we would go to school together. We decided that in stead of going to school that week we would go to Mamie's house every day. We watched TV, got into Mamie's cash stash in the cabinet and would go to the corner store on Barber Road and buy candy and soda pop all day and in the evening we would go home. This went on until Friday afternoon when we got home and Mrs Kozart was sitting in our living room with my parents explaining that we had not been in class all week. Boy!! Did we get some hard spankings. But we never thought about playing Hooky again. We became honor students!!!
