“ Dear Martha and family, We are so grateful we got a chance to know Big Dad. He blessed us, and so many others, with his faith, "HUMOR", love, and kindness. A sincere and true man. It's said that when the Lord calls our loved ones home he leaves a gift of memories in exchange. Hold tight to those beautiful, loving memories.

May God be with you and give you comfort. May he wrap his loving arms around you, and give you strength to face each day.

Always remember how much you are loved, and know that we are here for you. With all our love and support, Bryan and Carolyn

“ I have really gotten to know Don the last 6-7 years from playing golf with him. We rode together on the same cart over 300 times. He always drove because he said he was scared of my driving. When you ride with someone that often you get to know everything about them about their family, what they do with their spare time, their investments, their church and religion, their work before they retired, their politics and we soon found out that we had a lot of the same beliefs. We used to spend a lot of talking as we played golf. I found Don to be a man of high moral character that loved the Lord, loved his family, loved people and talked to everyone and loved life and was full of life. When we got to be 2 of the oldest golfers and didnt hit the ball as far as we used to and were having trouble getting around Don came up with a game where we were playing about half the course which allowed us to still play. It was my job to get the tee times and check the weather and then we would decide if we were going to play. He accused me of saying the weather was always good. We both liked to watch the Braves, Hawks, Georgia football and basketball and golf and used to text back and forth while watching. Don was a special person and i will miss him. Richard Gaines

“ Being a friend of Paul's in the seventies I came to know Don. I worked at the newspaper delivering papers with Don as the driver. We always had so much fun. He always seemed like a friend as well as a parent of a friend. I know he'll be missed. He was always a wonderful person.
