“ I worked with Don on one of his first assignments with the Inspection Service's Internal Audit Division of the IRS. It was the internal audit of the Omaha Collection Division in the late 1950's and his energy, enthusiasm, ability and dedication was apparent from the very beginning. His many talents brought well deserved recognition and advancement to higher levels of responsibility, eventually retiring as Assistant Regional Inspector of the Atlanta Region after serving in offices in Omaha, Chicago and San Francisco. His particular talent in criminal investigations led to the detection, development and successful prosecution of many criminal cases. As much as I admired and respected Don for his professional abilities, it was his uncompromising love of life that I will miss the most. Aggie and I will never forget his infectious laugh as he told stories of his many adventures. We're both grateful that we happened to be a part of some of them. In his passing, our hearts go out to Patsy and Julie and to his entire family who, understandably, are so very proud of him.##imported-begin##Aggie and Lowell Gates##imported-end##

“ I knew your Dad at Calvin Cove and was so warmed by his sweet smile each time I was there. It was obvious he enjoyed life in spite of his struggle with Alzheimer's and I could see his dry, mischievous humor come through when we played games with the fine seniors who come to Calvin Cove. He always enjoyed maps and those wonderful National Geographic Magazines and many times pointed out interesting photos from them. I am so glad I had the chance to know him. God bless you all!##imported-begin##Claudia Colvin##imported-end##

“ A grandfather I spent 12 years living only 15min away from. I am glad for that opportunity to spend so much time with him at his best. Energetic and enterprising, he served as an example to me on how to be successful at whatever you try. However he spent his final years my memories of him will always be of his youthful energy and love of life. I only hope that I can live as full as he did. Time with him was always an adventure. I will miss him greatly.##imported-begin##Eric Niehoff##imported-end##

“ My brother Don was my hero when we were growing up. He loved life and had so much of it in him. He was sometimes wild, always fresh, enthusiastic, energetic and confident. He was a leader, a friend and a protector. He had charm. He lit up the space that he was in. He was an inspiration to others. We have missed him so much for so long.##imported-begin##Bobbie Beerman##imported-end##
