“ I have so many memories of Donna from years ago. As kids we could just cross the road and pasture to get to each other's home. We had a great time climbing in the hay loft, wading in the creek and walking down the hot road in the summer. Many time we would sleep over at each others house and stay up all night to play truth or dare. We attended school together. As we got older and entered high school we drifted apart, but I never forgot the carefree days of our youth. She was always a sweet, fun friend.

“ Amy was engaged to My Brother Daniel Bradshaw a few times. But for some reason he couldn't get it together and be the man we all needed him to be. Mrs. Donna always let my girls Ashley and amber beddington go over with Amy to her house and go swimming. My girls are deeply crushed by this news. As we just lost my father. Their grandfather on Jan 21, 2016. My thoughts and prayers go out to all the family and to Amy and Lana. May God's grace and peace be with you all.
