This man was one of the finest human beings I've ever met. We grew up in the small little town (at the time)of, Lawrenceville, Georgia. We went to church together. He was a drummer - had his own Christian rock band. Once a month he'd go to the local jail and play for them. He was an exceptional, so very kind. Also a photographer, he took the best "professional" shot I've had to date. (By professional I mean use for business.)I actually pulled it out last week to use again. He took it the last year I lived in Georgia.

I have no doubt he is resting in peace. A couple of years ago I began to map out a children's book series based on various musical instruments. "Donnie's Drums" will be dedicated to him and the story line will be fitting of his love for humanity. Much love~

“ I had the pleasure of working with Donnie for many years. He was one of the most dependable, dedicated individuals who truly loved his job and being around the kids he photographed. He made his photography God's work. His heart truly belonged to God.

“ Donnie was always so sweet and had a great sense of humor! He was so devoted to the children at LCOG. My girls loved Jo Jo in Seekerville. It was the highlight of every Sunday morning for years! We love you, Donnie and we will miss you. I'm sure the Amen Corner came alive in Heaven when Brother Raymond and Sister Carrie saw their boy again!

Donnie was a kind and gentle person. No matter which of his many talents he was putting to use, his warm spirit, joyful heart, and love of Christ poured out. Donnie will be missed like his precious parents are missed. These were special people. Donnie spoke faith, hope and love into every situation in his life. I believe Donnie can say, "I fought the good fight. I have finished the race. I have kept the faith." 2 Timothy 4:7. I believe It doesn't requires extra faith to be healed from illness. Extraordinary faith is required, when a person knows God can heal them, but God says, "No." Donnie knew extraordinary faith and walked in this faith everyday for many years. My prayers are with all who grieve Mark, Pam, family, and friends.

“ This is sad to hear. Was really great knowing Donnie and being in the band with him. Always a welcoming brother and his house was always open. Many good times losing at Monopoly with him and laughed with him as he impersonated Elvis while playing in the band. God speed.

“ Aww. That is the very best photo of Donnie! It portrays the way we all remember him.

Pam, I'm so sorry to hear of Donnie's passing, but we know now he is in his healthy, "forever" body. And... we will see him again very soon.

There's no doubt Donnie knew he had the "best ever" sister.

Please let me know if I can do anything for you. I am praying for you and the family.
