“ Mom, came into my life at a difficult time for me, as I was only a child off eleven years old. Her life had not been a bed of roses, she had been suddenly widowed a few years before; yet she took on a ready made family with 4 children to raise along with her daughter Christine.

I appreciate greatly what she did, to create a safe home for us. I had great difficulty letting go of my birth mother who had died suddenly. My resultant behaviour caused Doris many challenges. In retrospect she did a good job. In today's society few would attempt what she did.

Rest in peace.

Love, Jimmy

“ My mom, Doris Ratcliff, took the family to visit her parents house often. I have fond memories spending time there. Susie Herde was a wonderful cook. Also, I enjoyed the nice farm house that they lived in. Grandma Herde had a parakeet that talked and we enjoyed listening to the bird chatter. Vicki Ratcliff Owen.
