“ When our family first came to Salem, Mrs Dot rode upstairs in the elevator with me, and we talked about the children’s ministry. She told me the focus that was place on teaching our children about missions. This was quite evident in the emphasis she placed on making VBS a spectacular event that taught children about the love of Jesus and his plan for their lives. I remember hearing Mrs Dot laugh, often, and every time she saw Camille, she would talk to her about their common love for watermelon. She was a beautiful soul who was full of character. Prayers and love to Mickey and the Blevins family. From The Adams Family (Slade, Lindsey and Camille)
