Beautiful pictures over the years. Dottie which I called Dot or mom was a huge part of my childhood. My mom and her were immediate friends when they met. Bestfriends shortly after. She is one of the best mom's I ever knew next to mine. Her world revolved around her children. She was very protective of them and would never allow anything or anyone harm them. Her laugh is something I can still hear and one of the best laughs ever. The best sweet tea I ever had was made by her and always in the fridge and at the the dinner table. My love of sweet tea is because of Dot💜 The swing under the big tree in the yard which holds alot of my childhood memories of her, my mom and Perry talking while we all played in the yard with Bandit and Charlie close by. Her home was full of love and details in making a home a home were done just right by her. Always decorated and clean no matter the size of the house she made it cozy and home. She is with Perry and family and hanging out with my mom once again. One day soon we will all be together.❤️

My memory of dot who we all called our mom to will never faid from my heart her laugh to will always stay with me, most of my happiest memories growing up was spent to around the hailey children ,who all grew into beautiful adults, I remember to the doggies bandit and Charlie and Peggy and I strolling our baby dolls pretending to be mom's. Yes dots sweet tea was the best. And andy with all his hot wheels lined so perfect on his bed. I wish life could go back that way for all of us who knew and loved for and Perry weather they knew it or not, they had more than three children dot was the neighbor hood mom.i will miss picking up the phone,to dial her number only to find I can't hear her words of kindness any more. But I too know ,we will all meet again .
