December 24, 1931 - March 5, 2021

KUHLMAN – Dorothy Mae Kuhlman, age 89 of Snellville, GA passed away Friday, March 5, 2021. A Graveside Service will be held 11:00 AM on Thursday, March 11, 2021 at Arlington Memorial Park, 201 Mt. Vernon Hwy, NW, Sandy Springs, GA 30328. Dorothy was born in Chicago, Illinois but traveled the world after marrying her husband of over thirty years, Raymond Kuhlman, an Air Force officer and pilot. Seeing new countries and exploring new places was one of her favorite things in life. Second to that was the volunteer work she did following her retirement from Wachovia Bank. She was an usher for the Fox Theatre for many years, but her greatest enjoyment was her volunteer work as a “Panda Interpreter” for the Atlanta Zoo, which she did from their arrival until 2016. Nicknamed “the Panda Lady” by visitors, she could tell you all about the Atlanta pandas and their offspring. She was preceded in death by her husband, Raymond Louis Kuhlman, Lt. Colonel USAF, retired; and parents, William Ernst and Adelaide (Kirchhoff) Hewitson. Dorothy is survived by her daughter, Diana Williams of Lawrenceville, GA; daughter and son-in-law, Julia and Ed Miller of Niskayuna, NY; son and daughter-in-law, Brian and Teri Kuhlman of Summerville, GA; grandchildren, Grant Williams, Corey Miller, Katherine Williams, Madison Kuhlman, Erin Miller; great grandchildren, Aiden Williams, Alayna Williams, Abigail Williams; numerous family and friends. “ I'm so sorry to hear of Dorothy's passing. I knew her from her volunteer work at Zoo Atlanta where she spent hundreds of hours over the years with her beloved pandas. I enjoyed working with her as a fellow volunteer and could always count on her to have the latest news on what was going on with her bears. She was a lovely, friendly, caring person who will be missed. My most sincere condolences to her family.
