“ Aunt Dot taught me how to weave with basket grass in a group class that she facilitated and this is a treasured memory. She was kind, gracious and generous with sharing her wisdom. Very much a privilege to have met her.

“ Some of my most treasured memories are with my family spending weekends at Dot & Tom's lake house. Rob and Jeff were in heaven there! I absolutely loved hearing all Dot's stories...most of all..the ones about her " great love for Tom Peters." I know for the rest of my life I will smile, laugh and have tears of joy when I think of Dot. Love to you Connie, Ronnie & family and Penny, Mike & family...My prayers are with each of you.##imported-begin##Jean Fenton##imported-end##

“ Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.
Thank you for sharing your mom with us at Calvin Cove. What a beautiful smile she would give us and what a trooper during our exercise time.
God blesses us by allowing us to be a part of our fragile elderly. May you feel God's comfort and peace as only He can give as you grieve the loss of Miss Dot. May His strength carry you through the days ahead and His presence be ever with you.

“ For many years the GREATEST WEEKEND DESTINATION was "DOT AND TOMS AT THE LAKE"...SO MUCH FUN...SO MUCH LOVE...SO MUCH SHARING A WONDERFUL LIFE. The end of an era has arrived, and will be missed by so many people. God has them both in HIS arms now, and we all hope to see them both again. God bless their beautiful family.##imported-begin##Dave McDuffie##imported-end##

“ Connie and Ronnie; Penny and Mike and all the grandchildren and other loved ones - Prayers to all during this time. You all did a great job of caring for your parents during their sickness. Heads up to those sons-in-law of theirs too! It's not a time of loss but of Aunt Dot moving on to her Place of Peace, Comfort and no sickness. I know she is now rejoicing and walking - and talking - with Uncle Tom, my parents, Mama (whom she called Janie Bell) and Papa Peters and all her other loved ones and friends. I am guessing, since she loved the ocean so much, that she is enjoying the River of Life. She once said "Sit me down in the Magic Kingdom and I would be happy just living there." She has seen the biggest "Castle" she could ever imagine. And it never closes!
Love to all, Vicky###imported-begin##Vicky O'Kelley Croft###imported-end##
