“ I first met Dorothy in 1983 becoming her insurance agent but soon grew to know her as a friend. She was a very pleasant person to be around and to talk to. After she moved from FL to GA we kept in touch by phone. I always was glad to hear from her when she called. I wish all of my clients were just like her. I know she will be greatly missed by her family and friends.##imported-begin##Roger Gill##imported-end##

“ Diana & David:

So sorry to hear about your Mom. Although I only briefly met her, I remember her well, and will remember her each time I look at the hat she knitted me to keep my bare head warm!

Our thoughts are with you.

“ *Dear Diana and David,
even though I didn't know your mother very well, I want to express my sincere sympathy to both of you.
Your mother is freed from her suffering and we should be thankful for that.*

Thinking of you,

“ Although it has been many years since we had seen each other, the weekly e-mails brought back all those happy memories of school in Boston.
I am going to miss Dot very mch and wish I hadn't put off a trip to visit her which I thought about doing often.##imported-begin##Jackie Cavanagh Mayo##imported-end##

“ I remember Dot for showing me the ropes when I began to work at TAVS. She and I smoked, so we went on smoke breaks together. Then I decided to get married and asked Dot to be a bridesmaid in my wedding, and she agreed. It meant alot to me that she was in my wedding. I remember Dot as a friendly person, and one I am going to miss. My sympathies go out to her children, Diana and David.##imported-begin##Leah Reinstein##imported-end##

“ No one could ask for a better friend than Dot Brawders. We worked together, we consoled each other in times of trouble and most of all, we laughed together for twenty years. Those are the times I will miss the most. I love you, Dot. Rest well, my friend.##imported-begin##Oscar & Terry Lopez##imported-end##
