“ Sending much love to Evelyn and all the family. Mr. Carlisle always called me "Reverend" - insisted on it.

We had countless talks of family and love and following Jesus. Doug was a faithful, devoted servant of Jesus with a pure heart. He rarely missed church services even though his health was fragile. I knew he was really ill if I did not see him in attendance during my season as interim minister in 2018-19.

You all are such a loving family and it is this love, God's love, that will keep you going.

*HUGS - these kind are safe in this COVID-19 time!
