“ It is with great sadness that we send our condolences to the McQuain Family. The God of comfort assures us that he will rid mans enemy death. May you find comfort in the words found at Rev. 21:3,4 "death will be no more neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things has passed away". May the McQuain Family and Friends find much comfort in each other during this time.##imported-begin##Vette##imported-end##

“ Doug was more than just a dear friend. He will be missed more than words can express. Always there supporting me, encouraging me and willing to listen when that was what I needed most. Heaven is now in possession of another very special soul. Maybe he can keep John Benson in line until I join them. We love you Doug!!###imported-begin##Pam Johnson###imported-end##

“ Doug became my friend about 15 years ago and we shared some great times together. He left a lasting impact on me and my family both personally and musically and he will be missed tremendously. I bought 2 of Dougs guitars and now I play in his honor. I will miss him dearly, he loved to beat me up about being a Californian, and we had some great discussions. He admired my daughters poems.##imported-begin##Eric Synhorst##imported-end##
