“ Mr. Bailey was the kindest man I ever met. I love and miss him terribly and it is hard knowing what he went through. How hard it was for him but he always had a smile on his face and never let you know how he was hurting. He put on a very brave face to the outside world. I consider myself incredibly lucky to have known him and have had him in my life. I would show up at church and sit beside him and listen to him sing out of tune. He was so proud! You knew that man loved Jesus. I will still feel your love even though I cant hear your voice. I remember it so clearly.... the last time I saw you we hugged and I held your hand. You said to me "You know I love you girl and will see you again." I told you "Yes you will be seeing me again." I'm glad your pain is over and I know you are with the Lord watching over us all.

Always know what a blessing you was to him as well. He loved and respected you a great deal. You made him happy and that was the greatest gift he could have gotten in his darkest days. May God bless you always
