“ This is a tribute to a very dear and kind man. Friendship has been so easy and all the times we have spent together will always be treasured. Damon has lost his traveling buddy. God gives us memories so we can have roses in December. You are going to be missed, Doyle, but never forgotten.

“ *Doyle was an hardworking man who always wore a smile. I remember him being the fire chief of Walnut Grove Fire Department and I was one of the volunteer fire fighters and a dispatcher. Most of all I remember him being our neighbor and growing up with his children.
RIP Doyle It was an honor to know you.*
