“ Beverly and Kelly, I am so sorry for your loss.
I had heard that Doyle was not doing well.
I have such fond memories of Erica playing softball on Doyle's team. I am praying that the Lord will comfort you in your time of sorrow and loss. Doyle was a great coach and fine man.
You are lucky that you had him as a husband and father.
With fond memories.

“ I was deeply saddened when I learned about Coach Doyle's passing.

Coach Doyle taught me far more than how to play basketball. I will always remember and treasure my time with him.

Please accept my heartfelt sympathies for your loss. My thoughts are with family and friends during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Laura Dempsey ##imported-end##

“ We are so sorry for your loss Beverly and Kelly and the rest of the Kilgore family. Our daughter Kaylee played Dacula softball for Coach Kelly and Coach Doyle. Coach Doyle was a great teacher and mentor to the girls. He always told us how much Kaylee reminded him of Kelly when she was young. We will miss you Coach Doyle. Thank you for all you did with Dacula softball and for helping our children become better players. Rest in peace.##imported-begin##The Hennelly Family##imported-end##

“ Our deepest condolences to the Kilgore family. We've known Doyle since moving to auburn in 1990 and saw him and Mr. Kilgore multiple times daily being they were "the store up at the corner." We moved 3-4 years ago to winder and i still made special trips to the store to purchase my gas and bottles of coke and slim jims for the kids. I especially enjoyed going up on saturday mornings just to hang out for a few minutes and chat with doyle--he would save the state quarters for me to complete our collection. R.I.P. Doyle and say hello to Mr. Kilgore for us. Rick, Cindy, Ashley and Ricky Jr. The Sargent Family.##imported-begin##Rick and Cindy Sargent##imported-end##

“ So sorry to hear about Doyle. I know he had suffered for quite a while. My sister, Mary Hogan Fox, was a classmate of his, and she passed away 8/12/09. Also, my family had very fond memories of the little store. I think we are related by the Hogan name. ##imported-begin## jane hogan harrison ##imported-end##
