“ Dad, I love you, I miss you each and every day, everything I go through reminds me of you, I miss your assurance that you are praying for me and everyone in my family. When I pray for my sons I remember you praying for us and wonder if I can do it as consistently and earnestly as you did, you have set a high standard for us, however in a way your love for me helps me envision the love of our Lord and farther. Dad, Tim is going to med school, I wish you were here to see him do that. I know you are enjoying being in a better place with the savior, but the finality of your leaving this life is difficult for us. There is hope to see you and enjoy you again in his presence. Hoda

“ Dad, April is your birthday month, it always reminds me of you, I think of you so much, I wonder if birthdays are celebrated in heaven?? I know the greatest joy is being with Jesus and realizing that all you hoped for is fulfilled in him. We celebrated the resurrection without you also, but you probably celebrate it everyday with him. I love you and miss you. Hoda

“ Grandpa, I will miss you very much here on earth. I have so many memories with you, too many to list here. Several of them do involve you buying me chocolate when my dad wouldn't buy me any. You were a very Godly, wise and humble man. You showed deep love for us as grandchildren. You also prayed for me each and every day. I love you and look forward to seeing you again in a better place.

“ After Hoda and I got married, Uncle Fouad became immediately became a “Dad”. They adopted me cheerfully to their family as the older son.

He was somebody that always looked up to, asked him advise. He had great sense of humor and loved telling jokes and stories.

Uncle Fouad was a loving husband, father, and grandfather of humble nature, and often denied himself for the sake of others. Those who knew him also delighted in his great sense of humor. Suddenly and unexpectedly, Fouad’s Savior saw fit to call him unto Himself to inherit his crown of glory and spent eternity with Him in Heaven. He will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.

Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.
Yes, says the Spirit, they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them.

“ I was only around you just a few times but those are times i will never forget, you were one of kindest people i have ever known and so gracious and welcoming. You loved your wife so much, the twinkle in your eye when you looked at her was a testimony to all around. You were kind to my husband and to the children you met. All of that was a testimony of your God. Thank you for your kindness in this world.

“ daddy, i know you would have loved it if i became a medical doctor like you and the rest of the family. but when i see how much effort you made to learn, like and admire what i chose to do for a living instead i know how much you loved me. i'm working today, remembering when you were here at the store and admired my order processing system. i also remember how you gave me tips on how to use the air compressor more efficiently. i have a feeling you could have done my job much better than i. i miss you daddy.

“ The Late Dr. Fouad was an angel living among us. I am his cousin and before he joined the university, he used to had a private clinic near Ramses Square in Cairo. I used to recommend him to our neighbors for whom he used to visit them for consultation. I do remember that he was keen to take their telephone number for follow-up purposes. The old lady neighbor after his call told me, at that time, that she felt better after he called her, can you imagine how nice how gentile he lived all his life. God rest his soul in the paradise and we ask him to remember us before the Throne. Atef WAhba Ghabrial
