“ *to all,
Was sorry to see of Mark's passing. I was in the same graduating class as he.
He always seemed to be positive and had a good sense of humor. It doesn't surprise me that he was an accomplished individual. My sincerest sympathies with all of you.##imported-begin##Mike Glasser##imported-end##*

“ *Dear Linda and boys
I am so sad at Mark's passing. We never want to see our children precede us--but we aren't really in charge. I'm glad Don wasn't here to know. You have my prayers and sympathy. Don was always so proud of Mark and his accomplishments and you can be too.
Good luck and good futures for all of you, sincerely , Aunt Mary##imported-begin##Mary G. Anderson##imported-end##*
