“ We were privileged to have known Bob for the past 10 years. He was truly a unique person. He has been a positive influence and role model for so many young students' lives, and for that we can rejoice. To his family, his loved ones, and especially his children we send our most sincere sympathies and heartfelt prayers that God will comfort and guide you in the days ahead. Thank you for sharing Bob with us, we too shall miss him.###imported-begin##Mike and Neva Ghormley###imported-end##

“ I was at Cousins Middle School when Bob was there as AP. We hit it off and became good friends. He was an amazing guy! I lost touch with him over the years when I moved to NC but I always knew where he was through mutual friends. His loss saddens me so much and I truly can't believe it. I pray for the family and his children in this difficult time.##imported-begin##Greg Thompson##imported-end##

“ I was shocked and saddened to hear of Bob's death. I have so many memories of his perennial smile and fun loving ways, kicking my chair daily in algebra class and being my junior prom date. He went on to impact so many lives as an educator and administrator..."A teacher affects eternity; he can never tell where his influence stops." -- Henry Adams. This does not make this any easier to bear for his family, his friends or his beautiful children My deepest sympathy, thoughts and prayers go out to you...##imported-begin##Katie Conlon Horan##imported-end##

“ Along with my sincere condolences, my hope for the entire Daria family is that your precious memories of Bob eventually help to mend the immense void in your hearts caused by his untimely passing.

I knew Bob as a fellow high school student who was always upbeat and hard-working. I am proud to learn of the successful man he had become, his dedication to education and the positive impact he has had on both his students and peers.

I am privileged to have known such an individual.

“ Dear Daria Family,

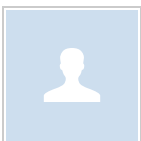

*This tragic news and loss of a life so young is heartbreaking. We are so sorry for your loss and hope that you take some comfort in just how much he accomplished in such a short time. I remember a quiet, smiling, polite kid at SR - we used to joke how we had no choice but to "behave" because our parents would hear everything! Our prayers are with you all in this difficult time. Cherish the good memories and know he will always be with you. Love -
