“ It was hard to have planned to visit Duane and Terry. We hadn't seen them for a few yrs. While on our trip to Georgia Terry let us know we wouldn't be able to see them. I admit I was so disappointed that we would be so close for a couple of weeks. Since then the Lord brought some wonderful memories to mind. I've chuckled at times. Duane was always fun to be around. He was so pleasurable and caring toward everyone. He had this laugh that would get high pitched. I would laugh just because of his laughter. I'm so glad he is with Jesus. But it's hard that we don't get to spend more time with him while here. We love you Duane. And your family.

“ Duane’s laughter will be miss so much by us. His wonderful positive outlook was always uplifting. Our hearts are broken, however, our strong faith gives us the assurance that we will meet again. Sending Our love and support out to the entire family. Sorry we are not able to attend the celebration of his wonderful life.

Mark and I have such lovely memories of our years as neighbors and while we now live far away we cherish the friendship that continued.

We know this is a difficult journey.. the path will be lighter knowing that he is resting in the arms of our dear Lord.

Prayers for the entire family.

We love you

“ Our hearts were so saddened to hear of Duane's passing and we pray for the family as they process the pain of his exit. The good thing, I believe, is that on the other side of that "exit" sign is an "Entrance" sign that might say something like this ... "Well done thou good and faithful servant, ENTER IN TO THE JOY OF YOUR LORD!" I had the distinct privilege and honor to be Duane's pastor years ago and have a treasure chest of memories of him and his precious family. Duane had such a heart to serve God and his faithfulness and love for our family in our humble beginnings in ministry will NEVER be forgotten. Duane, you fought a good fight, finished your course and you kept the faith! Until that day that we shall meet again, Rest on my brother!

“ My memory is when Duane helped Ron Collett baptized our son, Nathan in the Chattahoochee River. It was Summer time, but when they were all through Duane and Ron were freezing because the river was so cold. Duane and Terry were the first family to go to Gwinnett Jubilee Church. Jerry and I were the second, that is where we met them. I will always remember Duane's laugh. It was one of a kind.

I wish I had words to speak that would help. All I know to say is this. Terry, Lori and Ryan, you have the hope for the future. Duane is in your future. The day will come when you see Jesus face to face and see Duane again and I believe that will be very soon.

We love you all, Jerry and Verla Toney

“ I was always thankful for Duane being my son-in-law. He was a great father to Lori and Ryan and a happy Poppop to Zach, Luke and Matthew. Terry was his bright beacon to come home to. He called me Mom, and was there for me. We had some rousing political "discussions". I'll miss him. I can hear him up there in heaven saying, "Hi, I'm Duane, I'll be your customer".

“ Life will never be the same without you Duane. We had 50 years of marriage together and I am so grateful for all the wonderful memories we shared through the years. Those times stretch from dating in HS to our retired lifestyle. We had countless blessings given to us with our beautiful children and grandchildren, and the day we surrendered our lives to Christ. You loved life in a big way and always looked forward to family gatherings, getting together with friends or helping someone in need. You never met a stranger which was an attribute I admired about you. I will miss hearing your laughter, your colorful humor, you holding my hand, walking the beach with our long conversations, hiking, camping, or asking me every day at least 2-3 times a day, "Have I told you how much I love you today"? What I wouldn't give to hear you say that to me again. You were a wonderful husband, provider, father, grandfather and friend. I will hold these memories close to my heart forever and always. I miss you so much my dear husband. You will always be the love of my life. I know one day we will see each other again and I take comfort in this. Enjoy the presence of your new home.

Love, your wife

Terri and family you are in my thoughts and prayers.

Thanks for sharing Terry. Even reading your words give me that vivid memory of Duane always making me feel important just in his sincere love and interest in others. Amazing example of the love of Jesus. So glad Duane was able to enjoy his grandchildren and for them to experience his life. You two made such a great couple and I'm praying for God's strength and peace for you while you wait to meet again.

We are so blessed to have both of you in our lives for the past year.
We lost a good friend and person, but we still have you, and will try our best to get you thru this.
