

Dwight Vaughn Cheek

November 15, 1959 - February 10, 2025

Dwight Vaughn Cheek, age 65 of Buford, Georgia, passed away on Monday, February 10th. Vaughn was raised in Lawrenceville, GA. A loving son, brother, father, and grandfather, his adventurous nature defined his life. Vaughn enjoyed buying and selling antique tractors and equipment, collecting guns and pocket knives, and enjoying a Longhorn's lunch with his daughter and granddaughter.

He spent time every day venturing to find treasures at the landfill or on the side of the road. Vaughn was preceded in death by his mother, Geneva C, Cheek, and father, Giles M. Cheek. He is survived by his daughter and son-in-law, Alex and Colton Seckinger of Statham; granddaughter, Millie Seckinger; brothers, Greg Cheek of Dacula, Derrick Cheek and Kim Mauldin of Lawrenceville, and Jason Cheek of Lawrenceville; sisters and brothers-in-law, Jacquelyn and John Rapp of Hoschton, Jennifer and Mike Smith of Dacula; and, many nieces and nephews. Arrangements by Tim Stewart Funeral Home, 300 Simonton Road SW, Lawrenceville, Georgia 30046. The family will receive friends on Sunday, February 16, 2025, from 1:00-3:00 PM at Tim Stewart Funeral Home, Lawrenceville, Georgia. In lieu of flowers, please consider contributing to a charity supporting research to treat and cure Lou Gehrig's Disease, also known as ALS, in honor of his father, Giles M. Cheek. You can donate to The ALS Association at: www.donate.als.org. Please sign the online guest registry at www.stewartfh.com.

“Vaughn lived across the street from my in-laws for many years. He was a frequent visitor to their home. After my mother-in-law passed away he often checked on and visited Mr. Booth. Not only did he visit, but he often brought Papa Jacks lunches to him. He will be missed deeply by the entire Booth family. RIP Vaughn
