“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am praying that you feel God’s comforting arms around you. I was very fond of my Uncle Earl. He was so very kind. I always enjoyed my childhood visits to his home.

“ My deepest sympathy to Earl's family. I didn't really know Earl that well, but you could tell that he was a good, calm, and easy going fellow. I remember at one of our bunco meetings at their home, Earl made a delicious banana pudding from scratch, to help Rachel out. Each of you are in my thoughts and prayers as you go through this time of sorrow.
