“ I am not good at writeing condolences, but Earl was a cousin. I am the son of Phares Acuff. Over the years I never met Earl but two or three times. It is such a shame that familys get so far a part. I see that there is a son in fl. if he ever wanted to meet me I would be willing. Best of wishes to the family.

“ We are thinking of you and we hope to be there on Saturday. Uncle Wendall was one of my favorite Uncles. We had such great times visiting Aunt Carolyn and Uncle Wendall at their home on our way up to Chattanooga, in addition to visits at the yearly reunion. I will never forget the wonderful gravy that Uncle Wendall made last Fall during the morning breakfast. He was a wonderful Husband, Father, and a great Uncle. We will miss him.##imported-begin##David, Lois, and Reba Hoodenpyle##imported-end##

“ Carolyn, Joe and I are so sorry to read about Earl passing away. We were your "customers" for many years and always appreciated the good service from both of you. Maybe you can remember that I always wished you Merry Cjhrstmas when we were leaving the office. We still live in the same house, in Stone Mountain---40 years now. We're glad you have so many family members to help you thru this tough time. Take care. K.##imported-begin##Joe and Kay Lorenzo##imported-end##
