“ Eddie was a true man. His dedication to God, Family and Country was one not matched by others. A stern man that always stood by his beliefs in all things. I know he is and will be missed dearly by Jerri and family. Just remember he now is on a journey we all must face and when we all meet again at Heavens gate what a reunion it will be ! My prayers go up for you all, God Bless each of you.

*Love you,
Barry*

“ So sorry that the family and Eddie's dear wife Jerri is going through this process of living without a loved one. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you. Eddie was always so pleasant and I will miss him too. I would love to say the magic words to make the pain and loss better but only time will heal.
