“ Dwayne, I have known you since you were a teenager and became friends with my sons Chuck and David. You and your crew did a beautiful job roofing my house and the house in Auburn, and it was a pleasure knowing you as a friend all these years. I will remember the spiritual talks we had occasionally and appreciated our conversations especially with the generational gap. You were so brave during your transplant and aftermath and I just hope you felt our pulling for you and our prayers. Your courageous example will stay with us forever. Much love from us all.....and much love to your lovely wife Priscilla...Judith Reavis

“ Rest in peace my dear friend. I am so thankful that you and Priscilla have been a part of my life for the past 40 years. You were loved by us and our kids. That made you family, and I will miss you. It's said that Heaven has one hell of a band. I know you will have a front row seat. Til we meet again...
