“ I grew up working for Eddie as he was the lead on one of my father's framing crews. I always enjoyed working on his crew because he was so easy going. I never saw him mad or upset about anything. He was a quiet but skilled and confident leader. And he was smiling all the time. You just never saw him upset or flustered about anything. I will always treasure my time with him in that capacity. He is one cool dude who I love very much. My deepest condolences to his family.
