“Angie, Wayne and I were so sorry to hear of your Mother’s death and nothing we can say will help ease the sadness, but we just want you to know that we can share the pain with you.

Years ago when my Mother died a friend sent me a card that had a message that said,

“A life well lived doesn’t end any more than the music ends...

It echoes through time with whispers of beauty and grace...

If we listen, we can hear the encore with our hearts

For the song plays on,

Just as love lives on”.

I find this so true that after our parents pass away there can be a sound, a song, a church hymn or a smell that always will remind us of them with a smile and pleasant memories....They continue to live in our hearts forever.

Thinking of you,

Beth & Wayne

“ Edie is my aunt. I went to visit here a while back and we laughed about the memories I had as a child when the whole family went to my Grandma Corn's house. Summers filled with digging holes in the driveway-churning ice cream (still never had ice cream that good), snapping beans for said ice cream, catching lightning bugs and putting them in jars that the holes weren't good enough for them to breathe so they all died overnight. These are memories that I cherish and replay in my heart. She will always be a part of some of my happiest times on this earth. I will miss her greatly as she was a gentle soul who always gave you her full attention when you spoke with her. Tell my grandson hello and all the family waiting on us to get there. I love you Aunt Edie and I know you are enjoying that family reunion in heaven. See you soon!
