Even after 67 years living in America, everyone still said she had a beautiful English accent. She was a resident of Park Place Nursing Facility in Monroe. She died at Abbey Hospice. Her parents, deceased, were Edward and Olive Ashton of Eltham, London. Her twin sister, Vera Kathleen Spink lives in Kent, England. She married Travis Eugene Ellison on September 6, 1945. They were married for 52 years. They had three children, Kathy Ellison Wages and her husband Bill of Griffin, Mark Travis Ellison of Monroe and James Ellison, deceased. She had two grandchildren, Steve Wages and Julie Wages Moore. She had five great-grandchildren, Jeofry, Elyce and Morgan Wages, Hannah and Ellie Moore. She attended secretarial and bookkeeping classes and worked in that field for many years. She was a member of First Christian Church, 206 S. Hammond Dr., Monroe, GA 30655 and the Pilot Club of Monroe, P.O. Box 44, Monroe, GA 30655, and in lieu of flowers, donations would be appreciated to either. She loved animals, gardening and especially beautiful flowers. She joined her husband, Travis taking photographs of weddings, sports and church events. She was a thoughtful and caring person to all who knew her. Even in the latter months of her life, she was positive and kind. Even towards the end of her life her prayer was to “thank God for all the wonderful people who take care of me.” She will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved her. Funeral services will be held on Sunday, July 29, 2012 at 3 PM at First Christian Church of Monroe with Rev.
