“ I am the daughter of Charles Edgar Lowry and would like to express my sympathy to the family. It was my utmost pleasure in meeting Edna and learning about her and her family. Margaret Brown, daughter of Vera, found me over 25 years ago. I am so grateful to meet my father's family at last. I am truly blessed. Again, my deepest sympathy to all of the family. Edna was an extraordinary woman. My cousin Pat Lowry, has helped so much in my getting to know the family.##imported-begin##Martha Hamilton Brown (Martha Jane Lowry)##imported-end##

I am so sorry we were not able to attend the funeral. Our family is currently assisting our dad who needs help around the clock. Edna was a wonderful and fun Aunt. I am sorry we lived away from you and your family.

You are in our hearts and prayers. I know Mom and Edna are rejoicing with Aunt Elizabeth. I am so thankful I was able to visit with you and her at Tyler's wedding.

God will grant you the peace during this time of your life. Please, don't hesitate if you need someone to listen. Our prayers is for you to be comforted and God's arms around you.

Love, your Tennessee cousins.

“ Dear Dick, Candi, Kim, Fallon, Shelby, and Duncan,

Edna Lowry was an amazing woman. She was a devoted mother who championed her children with all the passion and vigor of a mother's love. She was also the quintessential career woman before it became the norm. Your mom (and grandmother) possessed a fierce independent spirit, and had the strength and determination to live her life with zest and vitality. She was one of the most opinionated individuals I have ever known (she didn't mince words) but also possessed a huge and loving heart! I have such a strong appreciation for just how hard she worked, how completely she loved her children, and how devoted she was to maintaining strong family ties as your family grew with the addition of grandchildren and in-laws. You are in my thoughts and prayers. May God bless you with a treasure chest of happy memories of your mom which will sustain you during those moments when you miss her most.##imported-begin##Stacey Branchfield##imported-end##
