“ I have very fond memories of my Aunt Merle. We lost touch so long ago. What a wonderful woman who loved life so much. My dad Richard was her brother. We lost him many years ago at such a young age. Merle was always so strong for me and my sister growing up.

“ Edna’s daughter Sandra, and grandson Shannon have been dear friends of ours for several years, but I just had the honor of meeting Edna less than a week before her passing. I will never forget the short time I was blessed to be with her. She obviously was in pain, but you would have never known it. She was so gracious and kind to me, and I just thought she was wonderful. We all laughed and talked about so many things, and I fell in love with her instantly. She was so very sweet, and seemed to enjoy everything we were all talking about. It was so obvious that she adored Sandra, Shannon, and Foxy, and that they adored her too. I felt so honored that they let me be a part of their very special time together. I felt that she was at peace, and that she is now with our Heavenly Father.
We love you,
Barbara and Danny
