I was unable to come to the funeral home when your Mother died. I just want to let you know how sorry I am for your loss. Edna was a loving, and sweet person. I know what a long and difficult journey you have been through. Time will help but the longing to see her and talk to her will remain. Know that as long as she remains in your heart she will always be with you. She has ended her long dark journey and sits with her loeved ones in the light of God's love. Be assured that you did all you could do for her and know that she knows that too.

You are all in my prayers.##imported-begin##Gail H. Allen##imported-end##
