“ Edna,

I never got to meet you in person, but through my wife I know what a great woman you were. I want to thank you for being there for her through her childhood. She always spoke so highly of you and of how much you meant to her. I am sorry we never got to meet, but know that even without meeting you made an impact on my life. It is your turn to rest now, and I am sure we will meet one day.

“ My heart broke when I got the news of your passing Edna. You have been my "grandmother" since I was 4 years old. I loved you with all of my heart. I'm so sorry I didn't make back home to see you. I will miss you dearly and love you for always. I still have the last text message you sent me...
I love you more today, than yesterday.
I miss you and pray that I am lucky enough to see you again when my time comes.
Forever & Always Yours,

“ We love you.

*A pocketful of sympathy
Is really rather wonderful
To stop a scratch from stinging
Or a bruise from black and bluing*

*A pocketful of sympathy
Can stop a heart from hurting
Or catch a tear that's falling Like a raindropp down a cheek*

*A pocketful of sympathy
Costs absolutely nothing
It's the cheapest kind of plaster That you'll ever ever find*

*And a pocketful of sympathy Is like Lindsay's Magic Pudding
'Cos the more of it you give away
The more you leave behind###imported-begin##Mary, Mackey Griffin and family###imported-end##*
