“ Ed, Dan, Mike - It was a sad day when I got the call from Dan about your Dad. I remember those many days on Knotty Knolls hanging out with you guys and always wondering when we could "steal" the GTX and go for a Joy Ride. Though that never happened, the GTX was a real signal about how cool your dad was. RIP Mr. Girard.

“ I grew up with the Girard kids in Maryland, three houses away. Unfortunately, I did not have the pleasure of knowing Mr. Girard well as we were all ushered out of the house before "Dad" got home...a common practice in the 1960's. However, I did know Ms. Girard quite well (what a tremendous lady!!!) as well as his two eldest sons, Ed and Dan. I can truly say that they were one of the most upstanding a morally correct, if not very friendly, people I knew. I cannot recall one instance when either Ed or Dan were unpleasant to anyone. None! I knew them for ten years, so I think I have a lot of room to comment on such matters. In any event, I send my condolences to his three sons, and wish them the best. Rest well, Mr. Girard. Rest well!

“ Dear Girard brothers and families -

I am so sorry for your loss of your Father. I know he was always proud of his Girard boys, as was your lovely Mom - whose radiant smile I will never forget since first meeting your parents at school, church and our shared Potomac neighborhood so many long decades ago.

Sending prayers to all 3 of you for peace and comfort as you walk through this difficult time with all the grace, dignity, and honor that he passed along to each one of his sons.

May he rest in peace together with his most precious angel by his side for eternity.

Thank you for your service to our country, sir.
