“ I never had the privilege of meeting "Granny" Effie as she was so fondly called by my dear friend, Vicky Eckman. After reading her obituary, I feel like I knew her for a very long time. She was sweet and loved by many. She lived a long life on this earth and will be missed greatly but it should be comforting to all who loved her that there's now another angel watching over them from above and waiting for them to join her in heaven. My sincere condolences to her family and friends.##imported-begin##Karlene Klimek##imported-end##

“ I never met Mrs. Effie Dutton, but I certainly enjoyed hearing stories about her from her granddaughter Marilyn. Mrs. Dutton won my heart simply by stories of her honesty, hard-work, creativity and spunk for life. May she rest in peace and receive great rewards from her Maker in heaven for the 101 years that she shared herself with those who knew her ... and even those of us who didn't.

*With much admiration,

“ Just wanted to tell Mrs. Duttons girls, Bonnie and Ruby Pearl that I am truly sorry to hear of their mothers passing. I can remember her sweeping her porch and waiting on the bus to stop to let her girls out. Been a long time ago but that was one of my happy memories. By the way, My name was Linda Lee. She is with the Lord now. Her hard work is done. I will miss her.##imported-begin##Linda Lee Leazer##imported-end##
