

Eileen Caroline House Wood

February 19, 1927 - April 24, 2024

Eileen Caroline House Wood, age 97, of Loganville Georgia was born February 19, 1927 in Clare Michigan and died April 24, 2024. She was a wonderful Homemaker, Wife, Mother, Musician, Artist and Author. Her husband of 75 years, Charles Gerald Wood, a skilled carpenter, predeceased her. They lived 44 years in Clare Michigan, 35 years in Clermont Florida and 17-18 years in Loganville Georgia.

Eileen & Gerald Wood had 4 children, Barry Dee Wood, Christine (Phil) Cages, Charleen (Lester) Waters, Sally (Tom) Howard, 13 grandchildren, George Cages, Michelle (Don) Phillips, Charlie (Shannon) Cages, Stephanie (Josh) Ellis, Natalie (Caleb) Smith, Crystal (Matt) Hogg, Zachary (Paig) Waters, Rachel (Philip) Campbell, Christopher Howard, Nathaniel Howard, Jonathan (Gillian) Howard, Timothy (Leah) Howard, Mirielle Howard; 16 great-grandchildren, Celeste Tagle, Justin Tagle, Jonathan Tagle, Chloe Tagle, Tristan Phillips, Theron Phillips, Nathaniel Cages, Cayden Cages, Colton Cages, Zoe Ellis, Jenna Ellis, Naomi Smith, Madilyn Hogg, Lilli Knapp, Charles Campbell, Baby Campbell.

Eileen was the youngest of nine siblings who have all predeceased her: Helen, William, Homer, Reginald, Arnold, Marjorie, Eleanor & Florence. Her father, George Stephen House, 1876 – 1960, was an immigrant from England & Canada and the youngest of 11 children. Her mother, Rose Sophia Schug

House, 1888 - 1957, was one of five children and an immigrant from Germany/Switzerland. Eileen leaves 31 nieces and nephews in addition to over 125 great-nieces/nephews.

Eileen was a uniquely gifted musician on the organ and piano, composing a multitude of songs. She also played the oboe in the high school band. She taught each of her 4 children to play piano and the gift of music is now being passed to the next generations. The "Nutcracker Suite" was an especial favorite of hers!

Eileen was a talented artist of landscapes, seascapes, birds, flowers and her beloved family plus chalk art in church; she could sketch a person's profile or face in a few quick strokes! She authored several books including A Little Girl of 1930, A Little Boy of 1930 and Pure Thoughts. She wrote devotions for "Deaf Missions" publications for over 40 years. She loved animals and gave her children lots of farm experiences with horses, chickens, ducks, dogs, cats, parakeets, even a raccoon.

Eileen was an avid and relentless Scrabble player! She loved history and the family genealogy. However, anyone who talked to her knew quickly that she was most passionate about her faith in God! She is now with her Lord, living the "hope that is within us"! Eileen Caroline House Wood lived out her faith and was a life well-lived and very much loved.

Memorials can be sent to Walden's Cove, 1442 Johnson Mill Road, Jefferson Georgia 30549. They took incredible care of our beloved Eileen for the last 3-1/2 years.

“ I showed up unannounced at Aunt Eileen’s door in Florida with a friend when I was 19. We didn’t know each other very well. She took us in for about 4 days. The whole family was very good to us. Before we left she had to tell me how much she appreciated her sister in law, my mother.

Years later, Aunt Eileen told Uncle Gerry to rent their farm in Michigan to my son Brian to keep it in the family. It was the beginning of a close relationship with Aunt Eileen, Uncle Gerry and their family, for Laura and I, Brian and Danielle, and my 4 young grandsons.
