“ Dear Family of Eleanor Hall,

When we heard the news about our dear Spiritual Sister, Mom and friend our hearts tore open. We grieved for you all because we love you so much and we know what a close and loving family you have. You're mom and dad gave us something we could never thank them enough for and that was to learn about our loving heavenly Father Jehovah. We literally owe them our lives. Your mom always loved us and we loved her and prayed for her. We know she's resting now and not in any pain. She endured to the end Matthew 24:13. She will rest now until Jehovah calls her and we long to be there to see her. May we now endure to the end because it would sadden dear Sister Eleanor Hall if she didn't have all of her family with her in the New World. We love you all and we are there with you all in Georgia with our hearts and prayers.

*Love always,
The Newman Family
Inez, Niecy, Patty, Darryl, Bobby*
