“ Dear Diane, Deidre and Dawn,
I am lifting you up in prayer during this very difficult time as you accept condolences today during visitation and tomorrow as we celebrate Eleanor's life during her memorial service. Knowing she is free of pain and in heaven with many who love her is some help, but there is a loss when your mother dies that takes a while to be consoled...
Until I can see you to hug you in person, know that I send much love.
