Born on August 13, 1930, Elizabeth grew up in Gloucester City, NJ. She graduated from Lankenau Hospital School of Nursing and worked in the Labor and Delivery room at the Hospital. This foundational love and care of children continued throughout her lifetime.

Elizabeth married Ralph Adamson on September 12, 1953 and they raised five children together. They lived in NJ for over 60 years and were very active in the community. Elizabeth supported many organizations and events including those in Scouts, the church, youth fellowship and the Lenape High School band for many years. Elizabeth returned to the workforce after raising her children and worked for a local allergist until she was 70. She enjoyed seeing many of her patients outside of the office in and around the community.

In retirement, Elizabeth travelled extensively with her husband Ralph, and her children and grandchildren. She travelled to many places across the US including vacations with her family to National Parks, museums, historic monuments and Twin Lakes Village in New Hampshire. She and Ralph had many international cruises and trips across various countries including Europe, China and Australia. She loved the history of the places where they vacationed and accumulated a large library of books detailing these visits. Her love of learning about the history, people and religion of other countries and cultures continued throughout her lifetime. Known as Me-Mom, she enjoyed the relationships with her grandchildren, spending hours on the phone and incorporating them into her vacations and holidays. She was a devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother and community neighbor.
